Resolutions.

Notwithstanding the many draw-backs occasioned by short crops and money stringency, we have forged ahead to a certain degree of success, under the leadership of Revs. Holcomb, Summers, Potter—and last but not least, Rev. B. F. Smith, your associated missionaries, who have been faithful and humble, with no limit to their efforts to plant and water, from a little band of less than a score, five years ago, we number ninety or more. We could ask for no more or expect less.

Now as we take up our oars to row our own boat, we ask that you turn your help to other needy fields and help the weaker who are ready for the gospel of peace and hope while we shall continue to co-operate with your efforts. Therefore;

Be it resolved that we tender the Western District Board our heart felt thanks for your interest and help given us during these few years of childhood life. Especially do we thank you for the ennobling Spirits of such great men as Bro. Smith, who is now retiring from the pastorate of our church; may the Lord reward him for his work while among us, and may his family and home have the loving smiles of God upon them.

The task, both of building and furnishing our house of worship has been met bravely. The work moved on almost without a jar and now are pleasantly and beautifully located on the most desirable lot about Springville.

We are hopeful of very great success along all lines. We are at present somewhat oppressed, but we feel we can rally as soon as our crops are disposed of. "Onward, Upward and Onward," are our watch words.

We are overwhelmed with gratitude to the Board for their untiring efforts to give us such wanted aid, and permanent help, you have helped us to help ourselves. Be it further,

Resolved, That we double and redouble our fidelity and zeal for the cause of Christ, and that we unsheathe our swords for God and right, ever seeking to maintain peace and harmony among the brother-hood.

Resolved, That these article be furnished The Parisian and the Post Intelligencer by the secretary for publication.

Respectfully,
C. B. WIMBERLY,
W. C. BENTON,
J. A. BAUCUM.

Obituary.

Newman Wallace Adams was born June 11, 1887 and died Oct. 27, 1914, age 27 years 4 months and 16 days.

He was married to Miss Lizzie Nance, Oct. 19, 1913. He professed a hope in the Savior in early life and said he was ready and willing to die. About an hour before the end came, he asked his friends to pray that he might have a peaceful hour in which to pass away and he died without a struggle.

He had been ill of tuberculosis for several months and suffered a great deal. He leaves a wife, father, two brothers and four sisters together with a host of friends to mourn their loss, but our loss is his immortal gain, for the Bible says of the child of God: "to die is gain and to depart and be with Christ is far better than to remain here." It is hard to give up my dear darling child but I gave him to God, his Heavenly Father.

I want to express my thanks and good feelings to my neighbors and good friends for their kindness expressed during the illness and death of our loved one. May God bless and save you all is my prayer.

LOUIS ADAMS.

There are many "tricks" in the jewelry trade. We shall not speak of ourselves; instead we let the articles we have sold in the past make promises to you for the future. We enjoy having "judges" of jewelry visit our establishment, we buy our wares from those who have never deceived us. When we sell you we will give you the advantage of our long scrutinizing experience in the jewelry business.
